SUMMARY

IT graduate with a Bachelor of Information Technology — exceeding the diploma-level qualification requirement — and a Google IT Support Professional Certificate. I don't yet have paid first/second line service desk experience, but I've built and now personally operate a help-desk ticketing platform modelling the exact incident and service request lifecycle this role works in daily, with full ownership from logging through to resolution and documentation. As Project Manager on a university capstone, I led a 5-person team delivering a live platform for a real client, building strong working relationships across the team and with the client throughout. I bring a genuine customer and outcome-focused approach, sound knowledge of Microsoft 365 and Windows environments, and a fast-learner mindset for unfamiliar systems and processes.

- Built an 8-stage job workflow with a full audit trail and maintained accurate documentation across the project — the same incident-ownership and documentation discipline this role requires for tracking issues to resolution.
- Delivered a real product still in production use by a real business today — proof of reliable, accountable follow-through.

- Designed and built a help-desk system covering the full incident lifecycle — log, prioritise, assign, resolve, document — directly mirroring this role's first and second line support responsibilities.
- Wrote a 23-test automated suite and maintained auto-generated documentation, applying the same change-control and root-cause discipline this role requires for patching and upgrade activities.

SkyOps — Infrastructure Monitoring Platform    Personal Project | 2025
